TRADITIONAL ISLAND WELCOME — Tahia Piehi, representing the French Territory as "Miss Tahiti," is greeted native style upon her arrival in Torrance by Pete Reitz at the Polynesian Restaurant in WALTERIA. A Tahitian feast was held in honor of the lovely island visitor from Papeete.

Spanish Art Displayed In Dancing

Admirers of Spanish dancing will have the opportunity to "Ole" performances by two exponents of the fiery skills when Roberto Iglesias Ballet Espanol, and young dance creator, Luisa Triana and her company, are presented in this area, sponsored by the Community Civic Music Association.

Iglesias and his company, with a varied program, will give a single performance Oct. 28, at Pasadena Civic Auditorium and Santa Monica Civic Auditorium Oct. 31. Iglesias' programs are based not only on traditional dances, but also on folklore of provinces of Spain and Spanish Islands. Acclaimed for his stage personality, Roberto has won admiration of critics and audiences on three continents. His company is hand-picked and includes the best dancers of Spain and South America. The Spanish dancer, Rosario Galan, shares top billing in the troupe.

Luisa Triana, accompanied by an all-star company of dancers and soloists, will be seen for one performance only, at the Philharmonic Auditorium, Nov. 11. Tri-

NEW KEYBOARD ARTIST WELCOMED — Noted radio organist Ann Leaf plays numbers from her new record album at the Pen & Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach, where she was given a welcome opening night. Bob Reuben lends an ear to his dining establishment's new keyboard entertainer.

Woodbury Stars For Funny Night

Woody Woodbury, Florida's legendary nightclub comedian, will take over Santa Monica Civic Auditorium, Oct. 26. Woody appears through courtesy of Concerts, Inc.

Considered one of America's funniest men, Woody's fame has spread from the East to the West Coast by the sale of his albums, which, like Bob Newhart's and Shelley Berman's have sold in the millions.

Woody disseminates a unique form of adult humor indigenous to the nightclub floor. His instruments are a piano and an audience.
